

FITZROY RAILWAY WALK

The Royal Park to Clifton Hill Railway opened in 1888 and eventually connected with the ill-fated Outer Circle line. Passenger services ceased in 1948 but some freight services carried on until 1968.

TERRY NOTT - local architect and member of the Inner Circle Railway Implementation Committee - will conduct the tour taking an easterly path along the old line.

DATE - SUNDAY 17 APRIL
START - 2 p.m. (approx. 2 hours)
VENUE - Corner Nicholson and Park Streets, North Fitzroy (Fitzroy side)
