

HISTORY WALK

Industrial Fitzroy

Fitzroy Municipal Rating Study

Two women going to work pass by Harrison Cordials in Spring Street.

The next activity of the FITZROY HISTORY SOCIETY will be a walk on INDUSTRIAL FITZROY on Sunday 25 October. The walk will include the Best Boot Factory, the Harrison Cordial Factory and Mac.Robertson's Confectionary Works, otherwise known as "The Great White City". It will be led by MATTHEW CHURCHWARD, who has an MA from Melbourne University in the History of Technology and is an engineering heritage consultant for the Museum of Victoria, the Department of Conservation and the Environment and the Historic Buildings Council.

Meet at the Tankerville Arms on the corner of Nicholson and Johnston Streets at 10 a.m. sharp. The cost is $2 for members and $3 for non-members. Everyone is welcome. Bring your friends.

For further details, ring Michele Langfield, 481 0443.