UPCOMING EVENTS

NORTH FITZROY WALK. Sunday, 10 March 2019

Meet at 11 am opposite the Aberdeen Hotel at the corner of St Georges Rd & Holden St.

The walk will follow Pilkington St, Barkly St, Rae St, White St, Glenlyon Rd, King St, and Miller St.

Along the way, we can see, hear and share some history of :

the Aberdeen Hotel from 1889;

Pilkington Street, the shortest and oldest street in North Fitzroy;

St Joe's school, now the Deutsche Schule;

Barrett Bros cordial factory (1908-56);

Clausen St and the site of Volksrust (1909-15);

Chicken Smallhorn's boyhood home, and the nearby Beitzel family;

the northern municipal boundary, between City of Moreland and City of Yarra;

the North Fitzroy suburban boundary, now beyond Glenlyon Road;

the Moonee Valley cordial factory with its own bottle factory (1890-1910);

the Fitzroy garbage destructor site.

The walk is about 3 km, with an optional 1 km extra along the Merri Creek.

NATIONALTRUST HERITAGE FESTIVAL EVENT

On Sunday 5 May, as the FHS contribution to this year's National Trust Heritage Festival, there will be a guided walk done in conjunction with Michael Shelford of Melbourne Historical Crime Tours. The walk will commence at 10.00 am on the northern corner of Gertrude and Nicholson Street (outside Royal Terrace) and finish about 11.00 am. at the corner of Napier and Little Victoria Streets. It will look at criminal activities in the area from the 1880s to the 1920s. The walk is limited to adults 18 years of age or older. Children 15-17 can attend with a parent or guardian. The cost will be $10.

GARRYOWEN REMEMBERED

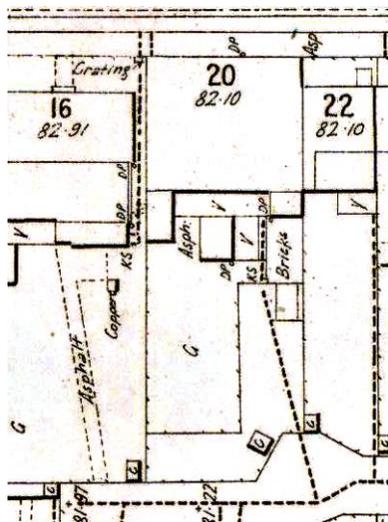

Edmund 'Garryowen' Finn (1819-98) was a journalist and author who wrote many colourful descriptions of the life and people in early Melbourne. Born in Ireland, he arrived in Melbourne in 1841. He was on the staff of the Port Phillip Herald from 1845 until 1858 when he was appointed clerk of the papers of the Legislative Council. He retired from this position in 1888.

Under the pseudonym 'Garryowen' in 1888 he published the two volumes of The Chronicles of Early Melbourne, 1835 to 1852, which contain valuable information about early Melbourne.

From 1860 he lived in a bluestone cottage at 20 Leicester Street, Fitzroy which was demolished in the early 1970s. His house, and four adjacent houses, have been replaced by Garryowen Park.

On 20 Jan 2019, the 200th anniversary of his birth was commemorated at a gathering of neighbours, FHS members and other interested historians. The convenor of the event was Liz Rushen who has received a Creative Fellowship at the State Library of Victoria to research the life and times of Edmund Finn.

"GHOST" SIGN

With the demolition of the adjacent building the wall of 63 Johnson Street is exposed. The "ghost" signs on this wall would have been visible for a decade from before 1920 to the late 1920s when the Masonic Hall was built. The sign of particular relevance to Fitzroy is the fainter sign, at the top of the wall, enhanced below.

The Fitzroy Art Metal Co was in Johnston St from 1913 to at least 1965. The business was initially further east nearer Fitzroy St at No 75, but by November 1916 it had moved to Nos 61-63. This can be traced through entries in Sands and McDougall directories and in newspaper advertisements
